

EDUCATION:

UNDERGRADUATE: University of Miami, Florida

MEDICAL SCHOOL: University of Miami, Florida

INTERNSHIP: Cornell-Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Institute

RESIDENCY: Cornell-Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Institute

SPECIALTY BOARDS:

Board Certified, Internal Medicine

Diplomate, National Board of Medical Examiners

CLINICAL BACKGROUND:

Chairman of the Department of Emergency Medicine at Cleveland Clinic Florida and Medical Director of an Air Ambulance Company caring for critically ill patients in transport to hospitals.

Subsequently moved to Charlotte, North Carolina practicing in a multi-specialty group before opening an Internal Medicine practice focusing on hormonal evaluation and treatment and nutrition for men and women. In August 2006, joined the Platt Medical Center office in Rancho Mirage, California specializing in a natural hormone approach to wellness.

Special interests include the evaluation and treatment of perimenopause and menopause in women with the use of bio-identical hormones, as well as treatment of diabetes and all aspects of metabolism and aging, in men and women.